ALPHA BANK

Press Release

Alpha Bank Cyprus Ltd supports the University of Cyprus

As part of its Corporate Social Responsibility policy and the sensitivity continually displayed by the Alpha Bank Group on issues pertaining to culture and education, Alpha Bank Cyprus Ltd has been supporting the University of Cyprus over a number of years by granting financial awards with the aim of rewarding and encouraging high ranking students.

This year, awards will be given on behalf of Alpha Bank to students of the History and Archaeology department, as well as the Economics and Physics departments, while two awards will be available to all University of Cyprus students through the Greek Culture and the Occupied Areas Commemoration competitions.

Alpha Bank Cyprus Ltd will also be offering the grand Creative Research and Innovation Award, which will be presented during the main graduation ceremony.

Nicosia 19th May 2014