Alpha Bank Supports the 7th Cyprus Banking Forum

The 7th Cyprus Banking Forum, held on Friday, 29 November 2019, at The Landmark Nicosia hotel, was a huge success. The Forum was organized by IMH.

This year's Cyprus Banking Forum, the seventh in a row, focused on the banking services of the next decade and gathered together, once again, bankers and key stakeholders from the financial sector of Cyprus.

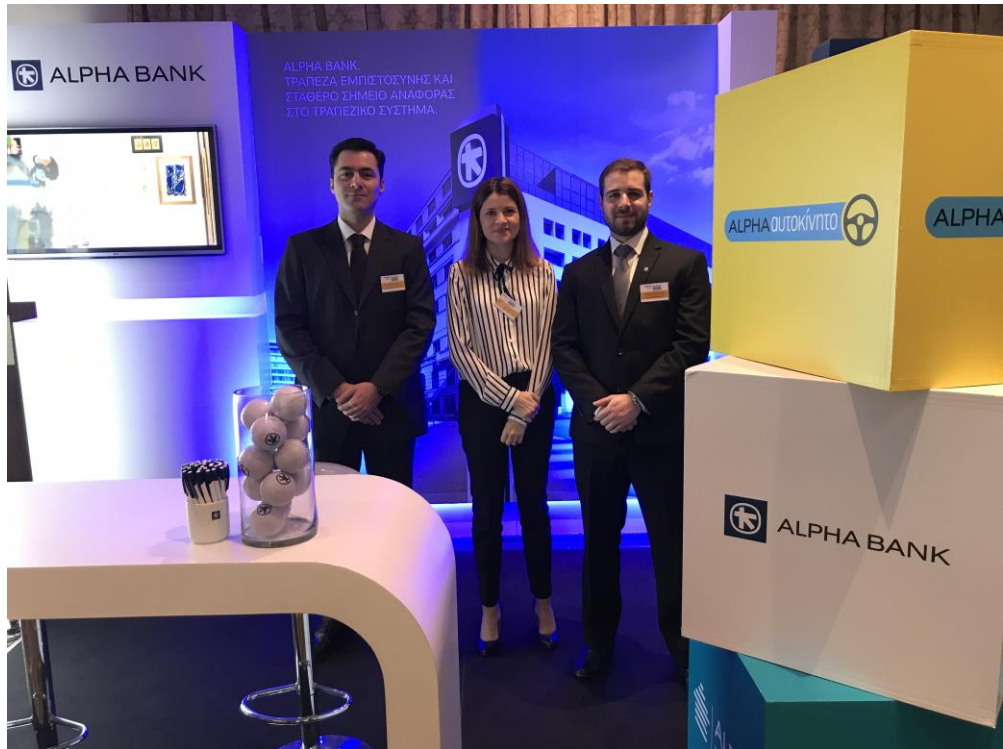

Mr. Haris Georgiades, Minister of Finance of the Republic of Cyprus, honored the Forum with his presence.

Alpha Bank was amongst the Supporters of the 7th Cyprus Banking Forum. In his speech, the Bank's Managing Director, Mr. Konstantinos Koutentakis, referred to the new vision for the Cyprus economy, as well as the difficulties and risks emerging at each stage of economic growth.

The Conference brought together representatives of the business community, Customers, associates and executives of the Bank.

Alpha Bank was present at the Forum with its own exhibition space.
