Alpha Bank awarded by the Cyprus – Greece Business Association

Another important distinction was added to the story of Alpha Bank Cyprus Ltd. In what has become an annual tradition, one company from Cyprus and one from Greece were once again awarded during the Annual Business Dinner of the Cyprus – Greece Business Association held under the auspices of the Cyprus Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

This year, Alpha Bank was honoured with the special award for its action within the Cypriot market and its timeless contribution in developing Cyprus - Greece business relations. The award was presented by Mr. Demetris Syllouris, President of the House of Representatives, in the presence of Mr. Elias Photopoulos, Ambassador of Greece. The award was received on behalf of the Bank by its Managing Director, Mr. Konstantinos Koutentakis.

The event was attended by Mr. George Mavroudes, Vice Chairman of the Cyprus Chamber of Commerce and Industry and many businessmen, members of the Association.

After the award ceremony, guests enjoyed a wonderful dinner whilst entertainment was provided by well-known artists who came to Cyprus especially for the Association's Annual Business Dinner.

Stronger than ever, Alpha Bank continues to offer its clients innovative products and comprehensive services.
