Alpha Bank supports the 6th Cyprus Banking Forum

The 6th Cyprus Banking Forum, organised by IMH at Hilton Park Hotel in Nicosia on Wednesday, 5 December 2018, was a great success.

The 6th Cyprus Banking Forum is the biggest annual gathering of bankers and other key stakeholders in the financial community of Cyprus.

Alpha Bank was one of the Supporters of the conference, in which outstanding speakers from Cyprus and abroad informed delegates on the past, present and future of the banking sector, with reference to innovative technologies, trends and ideas that are transforming the banking landscape as we know it.

Alpha Bank's Managing Director, Mr. Konstantinos Koutentakis, spoke about the future of the banking sector in Cyprus, during a panel discussion with the participation of senior executives and Managing Directors of the largest local banks.

Alpha Bank was present at the Forum with its own exhibition space.
