Press Release

Alpha Bank Group Volunteer Day

“Alpha Bank Group Volunteer Day” was completed successfully in Cyprus, on Sunday, May 20, 2018. “Alpha Bank Group Volunteer Day” has been held annually since 2009, in every country where the Group is present and it helps raising employee awareness and contribution in social and environmental issues.

This year, Alpha Bank Cyprus Ltd organised activities to support poor families. More specifically, groups of Volunteers, from the Bank’s Human Resources, gathered food and other essentials which were then offered to the families through the charity organisations “Europa Donna”, “Vagoni Agapis” and “St Christopher Centre of Donation and Love (K.E.P.A.)”.

The Employee active participation contributes significantly to the success of “Alpha Bank Group Volunteer Day” and reflects the Group’s corporate responsibility, while promoting team spirit and cooperation.
