Alpha Bank supports the “19th Fete of Joy and Contribution”

Alpha Bank, within the framework of its Corporate Social Responsibility Programme supported once again the “19th Fete for Joy and Contribution”, which was organized by the Cyprus Association for children with cancer and related diseases, “one dream one wish”, in cooperation with Strovolos Municipality.

The “19th Fete for Joy and Contribution” took place with great success, on Saturday, 2nd of June 2018, at Saint Dimitrios Park in Nicosia.

The objective of the Association, “one dream one wish”, is to give incentives for life to children and young people who suffer from several forms of cancer and other similar diseases, helping them to fulfill their wishes and strengthen their families with a supportive psychological program. The proceeds were offered to the Association in support of their work.
